ABOUT NWT TOURISM

Northwest Territories Tourism (NWTT) is a non-profit organization, established in 1996. The organization is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors which consists of 7 elected tourism board members, 7 Indigenous representatives appointed by their respective governments, one representative of the Government of the Northwest Territories, and one other appointment as determined by the Board.

NWTT serves close to 200 members whose businesses are directly or indirectly involved in the tourism industry. The association has dual responsibilities. NWT Tourism undertakes all the destination marketing activities for the Northwest Territories with funding from the Government of the Northwest Territories and actively promotes all sectors of tourism for the Northwest Territories in both domestic and international markets.
